“To strike out right and left against the mist, never clears the vision; but to lift your head above it, is a sovereign panacea.”

—Mary Baker Eddy, "Miscellaneous Writings 1883-1896", p.355

“Finally, brethren, let us continue to denounce evil as the illusive claim that God is not supreme, and continue to fight it until it disappears, — but not as one that beateth the mist, but lifteth his head above it and putteth his foot upon a lie.”

—Mary Baker Eddy, "Christian Science versus Pantheism", p.6:5

ST. MARGARET

A. L. Peace

O Love, our Mother, ever near, To Thee we turn from doubt and fear! In perfect peace our thoughts abide; Our hearts now in this truth confide: Man is the child of God.

O Light, in Thy light we can see That man is ever one with Thee. In love our lives Thou dost enfold, And now our waiting hopes behold That man is God’s own child.

O joy that ever will remain, Midst seeming sorrow, hate, and pain, Our hearts to fill with this glad song That soars above the mists of wrong: Man is the loved of Love.
