

STUDY THE BIBLE

SEPTEMBER 27 - OCTOBER 1, 2024

TOPIC: PROPHETS, PSALMS, JOB, and MARY BAKER EDDY'S BIBLICAL INTERPRETATION

CedarS Camps Fall 2024 Bible study features great poetic texts from the major prophets (Isaiah, Jeremiah, and Ezekiel), Psalms, and wisdom literature (Job, Proverbs, and Ecclesiastes) of the Hebrew Bible. Explore the major prophets' groundbreaking insights about God. Wrestle with vital questions and theological breakthroughs in the book of Job. Probe the spiritual significance of the genres, editing, and imagery of Psalms. Revel in the wisdom of Proverbs and Ecclesiastes.

Gain a deeper appreciation of Mary Baker Eddy's use and interpretation of key texts from the Hebrew Bible in light of writings about these same biblical texts by women, Bible scholars, and ministers in nineteenth-century New England, including her childhood pastors. Learn about and use resources and approaches for deeper Bible study. Discuss the Hebrew Bible's awe-inspiring relevance to our lives and world.

ABOUT THE PRESENTER:

Dr. Barry R. Huff is Professor of Religious Studies at Principia College, where he has taught since 2008 and twice been selected by the student body as Principia College's Teacher of the Year. Biblical studies was the emphasis of Barry's degrees from Eden Theological Seminary (M.T.S.), Columbia Theological Seminary (Th.M.), and Union Presbyterian Seminary (Ph.D.). He wrote his master's thesis and Ph.D. dissertation on the book of Job. More recently, Barry has conducted archival research on Mary Baker Eddy and nineteenth-century biblical interpretation through fellowships with The Mary Baker Eddy Library, Massachusetts Historical Society, and New England Regional Fellowship Consortium.

Barry has given hundreds of Bible talks and workshops from coast to coast, lectured in Greece, Israel, and Jordan on Principia Lifelong Learning Trips, presented papers to six different sections at Annual Meetings of the Society of Biblical Literature, published essays, and co-edited Seeking Wisdom's Depths and Torah's Heights.
